

John Cammack

training and consultancy for non-government organisations

51 Lime Walk, Oxford OX3 7AB tel. /fax: 01865 762393 Skype: johncammack
john.cammack@ukonline.co.uk
www.johncammack.net

SPECIALISMS

- Building capacity of non-profit organisations in financial management and management through consultancy and training.
- Training and learning: financial management for non-finance managers and trustees, building financial management capacity for non-profits and training trainers. In-house training and open courses.
- Consultancy in non-profit financial management, reviewing and building an organisation's financial capacity.
- Programme management reviews.
- Developing the communication skills of finance professionals.
- Coaching individuals in financial management.

GEOGRAPHICAL AREA

UK, and Africa, Asia, Europe, Middle East, North America and the Pacific.

WORK EXPERIENCE

John is a freelance trainer, consultant and writer. He was head of international finance at Oxfam GB and senior lecturer in accounting and financial management at Oxford Brookes University. John's consultancy and training sets financial management in the context of organisational development, making it accessible, practical and participatory.

John has worked with many charities and international non-profit organisations/NGOs. Recent clients include: Accounting for International Development, Aga Khan Foundation, Amnesty International, British Overseas NGOs for Development, European Commission, Fundraising Training, InterChange Training, Intrac, Islamic Relief, Panos, TUC and VSO

PUBLICATIONS

Building capacity through financial management: a practical guide, Oxford: Oxfam, 2007

Financial management for emergencies with Tim Foster and Simon Hale, CD and online at www.fme-online.org 2005

'Managing cash flow', Footsteps, No. 57, pages 10-11, Teddington: Tear Fund, 2003.

Guidance notes on project budgeting and accounting: 2nd edition, London: Bond, 2003.

Basic accounting for small groups: 2nd edition with exercises for individual and group learning, Oxford: Oxfam, 2003.

Financial management for development: accounting and finance for the non-specialist in development organisations, Oxford: Intrac, 2000.

QUALIFICATIONS

John is a qualified accountant, manager and teacher. He has an MBA from Brunel University and a MSc in Development management from the Open University. He is a member of the Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy, and the Chartered Management Institute.