

DANIÈLE LAMARCHE

Tel: + 44 7957 456-408 Email: danieleisalive@gmail.com

Strategic and Capacity Building Support

Facilitate strategic planning, feasibilities, monitoring evaluations, quality assurance reviews to help build capacity with charities, social enterprises and small businesses.

- Background in race equality, creative industries, human rights, holistic health, women's issues, media and environmental matters;
- PQASSO Mentor; School for Social Entrepreneurs Fellow; Birkbeck College Environmental Management Diploma; Brown University (USA) communications and politics BA; Cum laude secondary school diploma.
- Former freelance grants assessor for National Lottery and Arts Council;
- Feasibility studies include Platform Arts Museum of the Corporation, Swadinata Bengali Heritage Trust, Peoples' Centre, Creative Industries Development Agency study on needs of women in creative industries;
- Photography, video, heritage workshops, residencies and exhibitions for BAME women and young people at Whitechapel Gallery, Cardboard Citizens, Geffrye Museum, Brady Arts, LBTH Waste Recycling, Camerawork, Women's Library and Vital Arts won an V&A award;
- Experience of events management at festivals, private and public venues;
- Charity director for London women's complementary health care centre;
- Programme Manager for inner-city farm working with young offenders, special needs schools; creating community café, horticultural training for people with learning disabilities, horse cart history tours and made site physically accessible for disabled service-users;
- Track record of establishing programmes for adult education and training, outdoors and community building improvements, outreach programmes for refugees and housebound women;
- Member of Management Development Network consultants' network facilitating training and updates on developments in charitable sector.
- Raised in Latin America, USA, France. Fluent English, Spanish, French, some spoken Portuguese, Italian, Bengali.