

LINDA LAURANCE

Specialisms:

- Effective governance
- Trustee and senior management relationships
- Management committee/trustee roles and responsibilities
- Work with senior managers and chief execs
- Individual non-managerial supervision and mentoring
- Conflict resolution and Mediation
- General facilitation with teams
- Teambuilding/ teamwork

Type of work:

- Short-term and long-term consultancy
- In-house training and open courses
- External mentoring for chief officers, support for chairs
- Facilitation of debate, and Mediation
- Work undertaken outside the voluntary sector:
- Relevant topics from the above applied to the private and public sectors

Geographical area covered: UK

Aim: to provide guidance and facilitation, as an independent consultant and mediator, and in association with consultants having other specialisms, to enable trustees and managers to meet with confidence the demands of their roles both individually and collaboratively.

Work experience: Principal Associate of Linda Laurance & Associates; associate consultant, BWB Onboard; a CEDR (Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution) accredited mediator; member of the Institute of Fundraising; Vice Chair of EUConsult. Previously held a wide range of posts in the third sector, including Chief Executive, gaining hands-on experience internationally, nationally and regionally as an employee, and as a volunteer in particular in the role of Chair. Currently a member of Global Mediation and other mediation service panels, specialising in interpersonal and employment disputes, and of an independent mediation service dealing with disagreements over children's special education needs; Founding Chairman of Charity Trustee Networks, Chair of the former Code of Governance working group, Chair of the former steering, implementation and accreditation groups for National Occupational Standards for Trustees and Management Committees.

09/14

skilled consultancy for your organisation

Linda Laurance & Associates, Beechcroft, 2 Recreation Road, Bourne End, Buckinghamshire SL8 5AD UK

Tel: +44 (0)1628 531 329 | Mobile: +44 (0)7710 200 515 | Email: info@lindalaurance.com