

CKA Cross Keys Associates

11 Commonsides, Crowle, North Lincolnshire DN17 4EX

Tel: 01724 710819

Fax: 01302 341905

Email: info@crosskeysassociates.com

www.crosskeysassociates.com

Ann Hindley

Specialisms

Consultancy

- Feasibility studies and business planning particularly around community buildings
- Project evaluations
- Participative research
- Community engagement and consultation
- Rural development
- Work with faith organisations
- Qualitative research

Training

- Participative research skills
- Community development
- Business planning
- Trustee roles and responsibilities

Recent organisations supported include: Lincolnshire Voluntary and Community Services, Westcliff Drop in Centre, Scunthorpe, Legsby Old School, community pub groups through the Plunkett Foundation, Harrogate and Ripon Centres for Voluntary Service, North Yorkshire and York Forum, the Exodus Project, Barnsley, Advice North Lincolnshire, Advice Barnsley, CrosbyOne, All Saints church, Belton, St. Oswald's Church, Crowle.

Work undertaken outside the voluntary sector: Local authorities – preparation of strategies for Community Led Local Development and asset transfer strategies.

Universities: University of Lincoln and University of York. Parish councils: Holme Valley – asset transfer; New Holland – feasibility study.

Geographical area covered: Yorkshire and Humber, East Midlands, North East.

Work experience: Prior to becoming an independent consultant in 1992, Ann had twelve years' experience of community development, working for community and faith organisations. She has also taught in further and higher education and for the WEA. She has experience of being a charity trustee, having chaired two law centre management committees and been a trustee of a rural community council, a village hall and other local community organisations and is currently vice chair of a small grant making trust.